

Learning Outcome

Department – English

WHY STUDY ENGLISH?

After successfully completing BA English (Hons) students should be prepared for careers like media & advertising, writing & publishing, journalism, public relations, content writing & blogging, creative writing, teaching and academia, for further graduate or Professional Studies in English, communications, or law; and for other fields requiring competent communication skills.

The students will be able –

1. To understand the range, significance and scope of English Literature and European Classical Literature.
2. To analyze Drama of the 16th, 17th and 18th Centuries, Poetry from Romantic Revival to Modern Age, Novel, Essay and Short Stories.
3. To understand distinctive features of novels, shorter fiction and essays and relate the texts and contexts to real life.
4. To distinguish the difference among American Literature, British Literature and postcolonial literature.
5. To create Critical Thinking Skill, Effective Communication, Social Interaction, Self-directed and Lifelong Learning.
6. To read, analyze, and interpret works of literature, structures and the aesthetics of style and techniques of literary works. Skills of interpretation, analysis, appreciation of literature as well as writing and presentation skills that would eventually help in careers like journalism and media, publishing, research and teaching.
7. To demonstrate knowledge and comprehension of major texts and traditions of language and literature written in English as well as their social, cultural, theoretical, and historical contexts.
8. To speak clearly, effectively, and appropriately in a public forum for a variety of audiences and purposes.