Benefits of Studying Commerce:

01

No matter which industry you choose to work in, a sound understanding of Commerce is invaluable to your career prospects

From financial markets and economics to the latest management practices, studying commerce can offer you the skills and knowledge to prepare you for a successful career.

02

Many companies especially KPOs and BPOs prefer employees from accounts and finance backgrounds

03

Recession or no recession, commerce is a subject which will always be in demand unlike those from the engineering or management background
