

LEARNING OUTCOME

Department of Geography

After the completion of Graduation with Geography the students will be able to:-

- Understand the different process and forces acting continuously around the Earth and their resultant outcomes
- Understand different geomorphic agents which has shaped our Earth as it is today.
- Understand the atmospheric phenomena related to the weather and climate.
- Understand the reasons behind global climatic issues like climatic change, global warming, green house effect and many more.
- Understand the Man-Environment relationship and the different aspects and methodologies of studying the same
- Different Economic, Social as well as Economic phenomena which are occurring in our society continuously and their cause and effect
- Apply the geographical knowledge to solve various problems related to human society.
- Get a hands on experience on Field Survey using different survey instruments
- Have a hands on experience on collecting Primary data and representing them through different cartograms which will be helpful for them in future research work
- Have an idea and hands on training of basic GIS software, GPS, Satellite imageries and Air Photo

Future Prospects: -

Geography Graduates have good job opportunities in:-

- Different Govt. sectors especially in Planning Commission, Meteorological departments, National Atlas, Survey of India, Department of Remote sensing and Disaster management - in both state and national level.
- Different software companies associated with GIS software
- NGOs associated with hazard and disaster management
- Academic sectors - in both schools, college and university level
- Various Govt. and private funded research projects.